GIVEAWAY: Travel in Style with a Cool Backpack from UK-designed CabinZero

BY KATHERINE GOH ON APRIL 10, 2015

PROMOTIONS, TRAVEL

No matter where you are travelling to, chances are you wish to travel light and fuss-free if you can help it. This was what led Neil Varden to create UK-based travel bag brand, CabinZero. It all started in 1993 when Neil took three trips to India and realised he needed a travel bag that's light-weight yet durable enough to stand the rigours of travel.

Fast forward to 2012 — CabinZero was born. So what does CabinZero stand for? Simply put, it means 'Cabin Sized = Zero Hassles'.

The CabinZero 'Classic' ultra-light cabin and travel bag features a large 44-litre capacity, side compression straps, top and side handles, a front zipped pocket with inside zipped and mesh pockets. Measuring 55 x 40 x 20 cm, it serves as a carry-on bag designed to give you maximum luggage space while remaining within the luggage allowances of budget airlines such as Ryanair and AirAsia. What's more, it weighs only 760 grams.

Additional standard features include:

- Built in Global Luggage Tracker, powered by Okoban
- Lockable Zippers on main compartment (lock not included)
- 10 years warranty
- Thick padded shoulder straps
- Fully Lined; waterproof

The CabinZero Classic and Vintage collections are available at Winter Times outlets at Vivo City and Tampines Mall, Singapore.
